

Protecting and improving the nation's health

PHE and NHS England Joint Webinar

Learning Disabilities and End of Life Care

Wednesday 22 March 2017, 2-3pm*

Public Health England and NHS England are hosting a joint webinar on end of life care for people with learning disabilities.

By joining the webinar participants will:

- Find out what it means to have learning disabilities. How does it affect end of life care? What are the key issues in end of life care for people with learning disabilities?
- Hear about the 'Palliative Care for People with Learning Disabilities Network (PCPLD)'
- Receive feedback from the NHS England learning disability & end of life care recent workshop outcomes
- Learn about the NHS England End of Life Care programme
- Have an opportunity to ask a question to the speakers

Image courtesy of PCPLD network

Confirmed speakers:

- Dr Irene Tuffrey-Wijne, Associate Professor in palliative care and learning disabilities, Kingston University & St George's, University of London
- Clare Price, Programme Delivery Manager, EoLC, NHS England
- Professor Gyles Glover, Co-Director, Learning Disabilities Observatory Team, PHE

With support from:

- Nicola Bowtell, Analytical Programme Manager, National End of Life Care Intelligence Network, PHE
- Anna Marriott, Project Manager for Improving Health and Lives, National Development Team for Inclusion
- Louise Corson, Programme Lead, EoLC, NHS England

Registration

Registration is FREE for this event and if you have already expressed an interest in attending this webinar, then we will have your details on our system. If you have not registered, please do so at <https://surveys.phe.org.uk/TakeSurvey.aspx?SurveyID=81218055>. Please ensure you have registered by Tuesday 21 March.

If you have any questions about registration, please contact Kerry.archerdutton@phe.gov.uk

Please feel free to circulate to colleagues who may be interested in joining.

Webinar details will be sent out prior to the session.*